Amy manages membership and development opportunities, coordinates special events and conducts policy research for SDCTA.

Originally from Colorado, Amy graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelor's degree in Environmental Policy and Economics from the University of Colorado at Boulder. During her time as a student at CU, Amy worked for the University of Colorado Student Union as Sustainability Director. In this capacity, she authored and implemented university-wide environmental policies, planned educational events, and interacted with the CU Administration on a number of boards and committees. Amy also supervised a bi-weekly column in the Colorado Daily, a news publication that serves the City of Boulder.
