Brianna Shannon is the newest addition to the San Diego County Taxpayers Association. As Communication and Events Coordinator, Brianna supports the Association's membership, events, and outreach efforts.

Prior to joining the Association, Brianna worked as the Public Relations and Social Media Coordinator at Marston+Marston, a local firm specializing in media relations, government relations and community outreach. In this role, she was responsible for providing communications and outreach support, implementing strategic communications plans, managing social media outreach, coordinating special events and more.

A San Diego native, Brianna is actively involved in the community and issues affecting San Diego. Brianna earned her Bachelor's degree in Journalism and Media Studies with an emphasis in Public Relations and an allied discipline in Political Science from San Diego State University.
